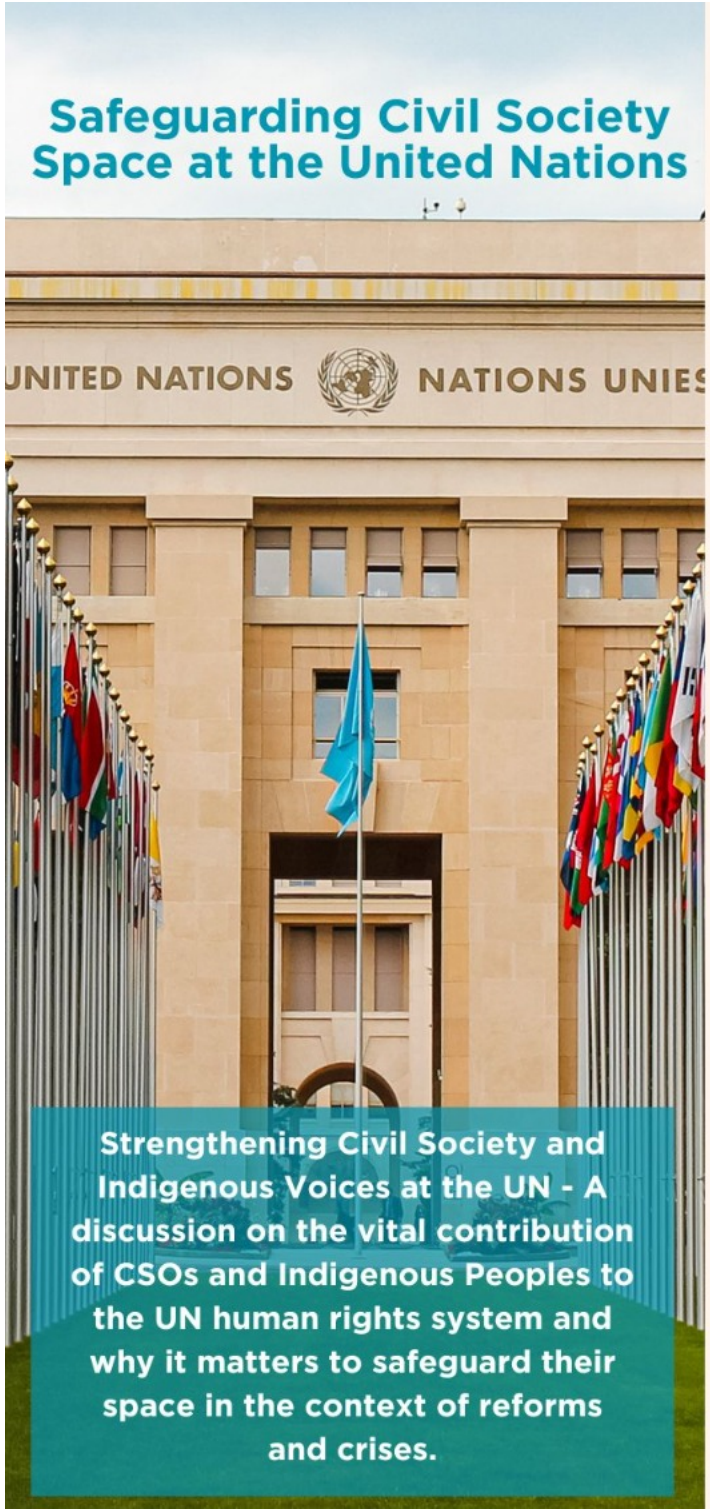
Safeguarding Civil Society Space at the United Nations



Strengthening Civil Society and Indigenous Voices at the UN - A discussion on the vital contribution of CSOs and Indigenous Peoples to the UN human rights system and why it matters to safeguard their space in the context of reforms and crises.

Moderator: Renate Tenbusch, Director of the Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung, Geneva Office

Speakers:

H.E. Ambassador Noel White, Permanent Representative of Ireland

H.E. Ambassador Doreen de Brum, Permanent Representative of the Republic of the Marshall Islands

H.E. Ambassador Gustavo Gallon, Permanent Representative of Colombia

H.E Ambassador Muhammadou Kah, Permanent Representative of the Gambia

H.E. Ambassador Michele Cervone D'Urso, Deputy Permanent Observer of the EU

Santiago Canton, Secretary General of the International Commission of Jurists

Inès Osman, Executive Director of the MENA Rights Group

Online at :

Tuesday, 17 March

2 to 3 pm

Geneva, Palais des Nations (Room XI)

icj International Commission of Jurists

Friedrich Ebert Stiftung

Co-sponsors:

Franciscans International – A voice at the United Nations

EARTHJUSTICE – Because the Earth needs a good lawyer

FORUM-ASIA

pbi

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

fidh

QUNO

CENTER for REPRODUCTIVE RIGHTS

DEFENDDEFENDERS – East and Horn of Africa Human Rights Defenders Project

International Service for Human Rights

Human Rights Institute

GCHR

MENA Rights Group

FIAN INTERNATIONAL

With the support of:

MISIÓN PERMANENTE DE COLOMBIA ANTE LAS NACIONES UNIDAS EN GINEBRA

Permanent Mission of Finland Geneva

PERMANENT REPRESENTATION OF BELGIUM TO THE UNITED NATIONS IN GENEVA

Kingdom of the Netherlands

GOBIERNO DE ESPAÑA – MINISTERIO DE ASUNTOS EXTERIORES, UNIÓN EUROPEA Y COOPERACIÓN

GRAND DUCHY OF LUXEMBOURG – Permanent Representation to the United Nations Office and other international organizations in Geneva

European Union

PERMANENT MISSION OF THE PRINCIPALITY OF LIECHTENSTEIN

REPÚBLICA PORTUGUESA – NEGÓCIOS ESTRANGEIROS