

The International Trade Union Confederation, the Friedrich Ebert Stiftung and Development Pathways invite you to the webinar

The Economic Benefits of Social Protection

Key findings from the new report

Investments in social protection and their impacts on economic growth

Friday 7 May 2021

13h00-14h30 (CET)

Simultaneous interpretation will be available in English, French and Spanish

Opening remarks by Sharan Burrow, General Secretary of the International Trade Union Confederation

Presentation by Diloa Bailey-Athias, Economist at Development Pathways

Reactions:

- Juan Carlos Durán Castro, Secretary of Social Security, Confederación de Trabajadores Rerum Novarum (CTRN), Costa Rica
- Reema Nanavaty, Head of Economic and Rural Development Activities, Self-Employed Women's Association (SEWA), India
- Kwabena Ootoo, Director of Research, Trades Union Congress (TUC), Ghana
- Shahra Razavi, Director of Social Protection, International Labour Organisation

Followed by open discussion

Closing statement by Hajo Lanz, Director of the Friedrich Ebert Stiftung's Geneva Office

Moderation by Evelyn Astor, Economic and Social Policy Advisor at the International Trade Union Confederation

Please register by 3 May by clicking here