JUST TRANSITION & HUMAN RIGHTS KEY ISSUES FOR COP30

DATE: 18 September TIME: 13.00-14.00

VENUE: Room Concordia I - Palais des Nations

Join a discussion on the critical intersection of human rights and the global shift to a low-carbon future. This event will explore how a just transition can ensure that communities and vulnerable populations are protected from the social and economic disruptions of climate action while advancing human rights, equity, and sustainable livelihoods. With insights from civil society, legal experts, and grassroots communities, the conversation will highlight opportunities, challenges, and solutions for centring a just transition and human rights in climate negotiations at COP30.
